

366

432

414

CONTENTS

355 EDITOR'S LETTER

357 ALPINE DIARY

The AGS's new President; readers' letters; 2012 shows round-up.

366 PERUVIAN VENTURE

Robert Rolfe reports on the remarkable flora encountered during his visit to Peru this year.

396 PLANT PROFILE

Gentianella weberbaueri.

414 FARRER MAESTRO

Geoff Rollinson has won more Farrer Medals than any other AGS exhibitor. How does he do it?

427 REGINALD FARRER

For newer members, an introduction to the man whose name adorns the Farrer Medal.

432 PHOTO ALBUM

Images from the AGS Slide Library showing plants in their habitats.

440 SHOW REPORTS

This year's Cleveland, London, North Midland, Midland, Dublin and East Anglia shows.

PRACTICAL GARDENING

398 GROWING IN GREENHOUSES

Vic Aspland on the lessons he has learned under glass.

407 CREATING THE HALF-MOON BED

How Pam Turner built an alpine bed that masked one eyesore and used another.

464 THE LURE OF ALPINE NURSERIES

Tim Ingram on the nurseries that have influenced his gardening.

COVER PHOTOGRAPHS

Front: Paeonia cambessedesii seedhead in the AGS garden at Pershore (Ann Thomas)

Back: Nototriche pedicularifolia in Peru (Robert Rolfe; see page 366)

ON THESE PAGES

Left: Nototriche argylloides in Peru; Gentiana lutea in the Swiss Alps; Jim Almond and Geoff Rollinson with Saxifraga 'Coolock Gem'

Right: Pam Turner and her half-moon bed; an alpine house at Hythe Alpines in Norfolk; a bicoloured Trillium grandiflorum exhibited by Diane Clement at the Midland Show

407

464

452