

374

363

384

CONTENTS

361 EDITOR'S LETTER

363 AGS PRESIDENT

Introducing Christopher Bailes, our new President.

368 BRYAN WARDLEY

A tribute to the AGS Vice-president who has died at the age of 83.

370 SHOWS ROUND-UP

A look back at the 2017 AGS shows season and the final aggregate tables.

374 STARTING TO SHOW

Novice exhibitor Ben Parmee encourages others to get the bug.

378 BOOK REVIEW

Glorious Shade by Jenny Rose Carey.

380 BACK FROM THE BRINK

A plant thought to be extinct is being grown by an alpine nurseryman.

384 GALANTHUS

National Collection holders David and Margaret MacLennan describe their cultivation techniques.

396 SNOWDROP MIGRATION

David Way investigates a botanical phenomenon.

Indicates practical or cultivation advice

402 CHILEAN ANDES

Martin and Anna-Liisa Sheader report from this year's AGS tour.

428 FRITILLARIES

A photo album of these beguiling bulbous plants.

440 PLANT NAMES

Robert Rolfe makes sense of some changing identities.

456 CANADIAN QUEST

Gary Mentanko on the arctic-alpine flora around Hudson Bay.

470 PRIZE EXHIBITS

Superb specimens from this year's AGS Ulster, Midland, East Anglia, Wimborne, Bakewell and Pershore shows.

COVER PHOTOGRAPHS

FRONT Fritillaria olivieri in north-western Iran (Jim Archibald).

BACK Montiopsis andicola (Martin and Anna-Liisa Sheader).

ON THESE PAGES

LEFT Pleione Marion Johnson gx 'Bubs'; Cypripedium Lady Dorine; Galanthus 'Fatty Puff'.

RIGHT The Hudson Bay coast; Schizanthus coccineus; Lewisia cotyledon 'Ashwood Ruby'.

456

402

470