

404

424

466

CONTENTS

357 EDITOR'S LETTER

359 CONSERVATION

The AGS teams up with the RSPB to protect alpins in the Lake District.

364 SHOWS ROUND-UP

A summary of performances at AGS shows during 2016.

368 PAUL INGWERSEN

A tribute to the nurseryman who died earlier this year.

372 LETTERS

A surprise in the raised bed!

374 BOOK REVIEW

Kniphofia: The Complete Guide.

404 A YEAR IN

MY GARDEN

The final part of the diary kept by John Noakes during 2015.

414 THE HIGH ALPS

Our annual treat from the AGS slide library focuses on Europe.

424 CUSHION PLANTS

Robert Rolfe begins a two-part article on cushion plants, their habitats and their cultivation.

PRACTICAL GARDENING

376 LET THE BELLS RING OUT!

John Good on his love for bell-shaped flowers and how he grows them in North Wales.

394 SMOKE SIGNALS

Paul Cumbleton experiments with using smoke treatment to promote seed germination.

450 EXPLORING THE KAZAKH TIEN SHAN

David Morris reports from some of the world's remotest alpine terrain.

466 PRIZE EXHIBITS

Superb specimens from this year's East Anglia, Southport, Wimborne, Bakewell and Pershore AGS shows.

COVER PHOTOGRAPHS

FRONT Dianthus hoeltzeri (David Morris).

BACK Iris pamphylica grown by Colin and Elaine Barr (Jon Evans).

ON THESE PAGES

LEFT Crocus hadriaticus; Gypsophila aretioides; Physoplexis comosa var. pubescens.

RIGHT Soldanella minima; AGS Chesterfield Show; Aster alpinus.

364

394