

123

166

188

CONTENTS

121 EDITOR'S LETTER

123 ALPINE DIARY

The AGS's Gold Medal-winning garden at Chelsea; readers' letters.

133 ROBERT ROLFE

The delights and risks of plant-hunting in Turkey.

152 CONSERVATION

Barbara Jones assesses the future for Britain's wild alpins.

166 BLACKTHORN

Robert Rolfe visits Robin and Sue White's enviable garden.

188 NEW CROCUSES

Jānis Rukšāns describes seven new taxa from the Balkans and Turkey.

194 FRED STOKER

Barry Starling on the man who introduced the Farrer Medal.

202 PICTURE PERFECT

The winners of the AGS Photographic Competition.

216 SHOWS ROUND-UP

Specimen plants from AGS shows in February and March this year.

PRACTICAL GARDENING

142 UNUSUAL BULBS

Vic Aspland on the early spring bulbs that have found a home in his plunge beds.

146 HOW TO GROW IT

A new regular feature. Vic Aspland looks at Narcissus cyclamineus.

148 EXTENDING THE SAND BED

Tim Ingram makes room for more plants.

226 AUTUMN IN TURKEY

Yiannis Christofides in the Lycian Mountains.

COVER PHOTOGRAPHS

Front: Saxifraga paniculata in Switzerland (Roger Brownbridge)

Back: Crocus asumaniae in the Lycian Mountains, Turkey (Yiannis Christofides)

ON THESE PAGES

Left: The AGS garden at Chelsea; Colchicum autumnale at Blackthorn; Crucus speciosus subsp. sakariensis

Right: Tulipa orithyioides; Biarum marmarisense; Fritillaria stenanthera shown by George Elder at the Kent Show 142

226

216