

12

22

CONTENTS

3 EDITOR'S LETTER

5 ALPINE DIARY

The 2015 Lyttel Trophy winner; £600 of prizes to be won in the improved AGS Photographic Competition.

12 PAUL CUMBLETON'S DIARY

Developing a nose for unusual plants.

FOCUS ON GARDENS

30 Peter Erskine selects plants that have served him well in his Sussex garden.

44 Steve Furness says that opening your garden to the public is the best way to encourage interest in alpine.

54 John Noakes begins a diary of a year in his garden.

66 THE AGS ON TOUR IN TAJIKISTAN AND UZBEKISTAN
Harry Jans and John Mitchell lead an AGS party to a plantsman's paradise.

98 STEPPE PLANTS

Mike Kintgen on a flora that has transformed our gardens.

PRACTICAL GARDENING

22 OUR ALPINE FRONT GARDEN

Pam and John de Wit build a rock garden, much to the delight of their neighbours.

28 HOW TO GROW IT
Robert Rolfe on Deutzia gracilis 'Nikko'.

104 PRIZE PLANTS

Splendid exhibits from the AGS's four autumn shows in 2015.

112 CONSERVATION

Rob Amos assesses how we should value alpine.

COVER PHOTOGRAPHS

To celebrate the launch of the improved AGS Photographic Competition, two previous entries are published for the first time.

FRONT Lewisia tweedyi (Tony Duffey).

BACK Androsace villosa (Bill Raymond).

ON THESE PAGES

LEFT Jamesbrittenia bergae; Roscoea humeana f. alba SBLE 636; Sempervivum 'Gazelle'.

RIGHT Pam and John de Wit's front garden; Iris vicaria; Delosperma cultivars.

30

44

66

98