

26

12

46

CONTENTS

3 EDITOR'S LETTER

6 RHS AWARD FOR AGS

The 2016 AGS Chelsea garden picks up another accolade.

8 BOOK REVIEW

A Pocket Guide to the Orchids of Britain and Ireland by Simon Harrap.

10 LEAF-MOULD ALERT

David Philbey has paid a high price for using unsterilised leaf-mould.

12 A SUSSEX GARDEN

Peter Erskine shares some of the delights in his garden.

26 DIANTHUS AND HOW TO GROW THEM

Brian Burrow looks in depth at this beguiling genus.

46 FABULOUS PHOTOGRAPHS

The winning entries in the expanded AGS Photographic Competition.

64 CUSHION PLANTS

Part two of Robert Rolfe's survey of these high alpine aristocrats, in which he examines their quirky adaptations for survival.

Indicates practical or cultivation advice

88 IN SEARCH OF A WILD SAXIFRAGE HYBRID

Adrian Young's quest on Mount Falakro for Saxifraga sempervivum x ferdinandi-coburgi.

94 ROMANIAN ALPINES

Răzvan Chișu offers a taster of the diverse flora in his home country.

104 SNOWDROP PILGRIM

David Way looks at the links between snowdrops and sacred Christian sites in Britain.

112 PRIZE EXHIBITS

Superb specimens from last year's AGS autumn shows at Loughborough, Newcastle, Harlow Carr and Kent.

COVER PHOTOGRAPHS

FRONT Androsace tapete (Harry Jans).

BACK Dianthus microlepis in the Pirin Mountains, Bulgaria (Harry Jans).

ON THESE PAGES

LEFT Dianthus 'Inshriach Dazzler'; Tulipa sprengeri; Moneses uniflora.

RIGHT Dionysia cushions in the alpine house of John Dixon; snowdrops at Benington Lordship, Hertfordshire; Crocus cambessedesii exhibited by Sarah Carlton at the AGS Kent Autumn Show.

64

104

112