

260

284

338

CONTENTS

241 EDITOR'S LETTER

243 TATTON SUCCESS

The AGS wins a Silver-Gilt Medal at the RHS Tatton Park Flower Show.

247 CHELSEA FLOWER SHOW

Robert Rolfe on this year's show.

260 SILVER SAXIFRAGES

Adrian Young advises how to grow these rewarding plants and describes a new natural hybrid.

268 READERS' LETTERS

272 BOOK REVIEW

The World of Crocuses by Jānis Rukšāns.

276 NEW HEPATICAS

Vojtěch and Lenka Holubec on new Czech cultivars.

280 DAPHNE OPENS UP

Vlastimil Pilous finds a showy form of Daphne kosaninii.

282 PEST CONTROL

David Way experiments with readily available hydrogen peroxide.

Indicates practical or cultivation advice

284 THE TIEN SHAN

Liz Knowles finds many treasures in this fascinating mountain range.

312 WALKABOUT IN WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Hilary and Austin Little report from the AGS expedition.

338 AUTUMN BULBS IN THE PELOPONNESE

David A. Hill finds much to enjoy on last year's AGS tour.

350 PRIZE

EXHIBITS

Superb specimens from this year's AGS Northumberland, South West, Chesterfield, Dublin, Cleveland and Kent shows.

COVER PHOTOGRAPHS

FRONT Caladenia cairnsiana (Hilary and Austin Little).

BACK Iris loczyi (Liz Knowles).

ON THESE PAGES

LEFT Saxifraga cochlearis 'Oh Yes'; Trollius altaicus; Cyclamen hederifolium subsp. crassifolium.

RIGHT Hepatica 'Anna Jílková'; Banksia lehmanniana; Iris schachtii exhibited by Tim Lever at the AGS Kent Show.

276

312

350