

258

310

298

CONTENTS

239 EDITOR'S LETTER

241 ALPINE DIARY

Developments in the AGS garden; readers' letters; a new natural saxifrage hybrid; book review.

250 ROBERT ROLFE

Plants have a knack of popping up where they are least expected.

258 THE CYPRIPEDIUM REVOLUTION

Christopher-Grey Wilson visits Anthura nursery in the Netherlands, where new techniques enable slipper orchids to be grown in tens of thousands. PLUS – see page 281 opposite.

298 THE LURE OF PATAGONIA

Martin and Anna-Liisa Sheader on their love of Patagonian plants.

310 BLACKTHORN

In the second part of our series on Robin and Sue White's enviable garden, Robert Rolfe explores the area behind the house.

330 SHOWS ROUND-UP

Magnificent plants from AGS shows in April this year.

PRACTICAL GARDENING

281 CYPRIPEDIUMS IN THE GARDEN

Wim van Kruijsbergen reveals how he achieves success with slipper orchids in his garden.

292 HOW TO GROW IT

Lithodora diffusa 'Picos' by Vic Aspland.

295 HOW TO GROW IT

Androsace vandellii by Geoff Rollinson.

342 SPOTTING BIRDS AND PLANTS

Todd Boland in the Aragonese Pyrenees.

COVER PHOTOGRAPHS

Front: Cypripedium macranthos at Anthura nursery (Christopher Grey-Wilson). Back: Lilium speciosum var. gloriosoides at Blackthorn (Jon Evans)

ON THESE PAGES

Left: Cypripedium Sabine gx; Anemone pavonina; Viola atropurpurea

Right: Cypripedium reginae; a packed bench at the AGS Midland Show; Primula integrifolia

281

330

342